Our symphony orchestra and resident quarters enrich our quality of life---distinguishing our community. They bring another musical dimension to all of us--young and old. ---Buck Shuford

It's always interesting to watch a client as they comprehend our area's "differentiating factors." When they see, for example, the Western Piedmont Symphony and the level of quality performing arts, they realize that this market is different. . . a special community in which to live and work. ---*Scott Millar, President, Catawba Co.
